President's Message

..... from Agnes

Welcome Back Everyone

Wow... didn't that summer go fast!

A long chain of events, one after another for me... and going by our attempts to get the exec's together at one time, I think it was that way for us all!!

I hope there was time to paint, or draw, as the case may be, or at least time to gather good photograph material for winter painting!

Fall is almost here; our first meeting at Windsor Park is on September 17, with a presentation by Catherine Moffat.

And, for our Supporting Members wishing to try for Active Status so that you can enter our Fall Show, the jurying for Active Status will be at my house, (#5—864 Swan Street) on Saturday, September 26th. Bring you paintings between 10—12 a.m.; jurying will be in the afternoon, and pick up again on Sunday between 10 am and noon.

For more info, call me at 250-386-7858.

I look forward to seeing everyone again, and to an exciting Fall and winter season.

Full information available on the FCA site at www.artists.ca

Visit this website often. There is so much information about the art and artists, the history and the present of this organization... it's fun to review regularly.

There are many Classes and Workshops offered through the Vancouver FCA; these also, are all listed on the website.

Communications : Grapevine and Website Info ...

Our website is up and running. If you can, check it out either on your own, or by visiting a friend who 'surfs'; the site is www.victoriafca.com . Check it regularly as it is constantly updated as your info comes in.

Please continue to send us all your artistic information . It will be posted on the site within a few days, and, if still current, will also appear in the Grapevine (published February, May, September, and December).

Please Note: We have a New Volunteer for Communications... April Lund.
Thanks April, for stepping forward!

So, please send all your information for the Website and for the Grapevine to April.
