Jurying for Active Status

Want to become an Active member and be eligible to submit to FCA shows both here and in Vancouver?

Here's how:

First: become a Supporting member of the FCA: fill out an application form and pay your dues.

You must be juried in to Active Status, either by our local Chapter, or through Vancouver. All details, including the required submission forms, are on the FCA website: www.artists.ca.

Local jurying for Active Status occurs once per year: this year it is Saturday, October 4 at the home of Agnes Cornell, #5, 864 Swan St., off Saanich Rd. between 10 am and noon.

Jurors are Marney Ward AFCA and Mary Ann Laing AFCA; jurying will take place that afternoon.

If successful, you will be able to submit paintings to our fall exhibition.

How to do it? Select three of your best paintings. Then choose small prints (4x6" is OK) of 7 other paintings, preferably in a similar style. Bring all of this to Agnes' on October 4; the forms will be available to fill out at the site if you can't download them.

There is no fee if you are already a Supporting Member. If successful you will be invited to provide a bio page to add to our Biography Book. Your fees to the FCA will go up the following year; our Chapter fees remain $20 for all levels of membership.

The various levels of membership in the FCA are all defined at www.artists.ca.

Membership Dues for 2009 are still only $20. Bring your cheque on Oct 23, made out to "FCA—Victoria Chapter" for Margot Clayton
